

Membership Turnover Declaration Form

As this is a member declaration, please ensure that the information submitted below is accurate. The information supplied will be used to determine the appropriate membership category for your GS1 Australia subscription membership and any associated services for the applicable financial year.

Turnover is deemed to be the aggregate Australian based revenue of your organisation including all related companies for a twelve month period, regardless of the number of products utilising the GS1 System.

For Government and statutory organisations, revenue includes income from the sale of products and services as well as any Government appropriations, contributions, subsidies or other Government distributions and funding.
